3 Sigma Chairman to take reins as C.E.O.

Troy, OH; March 2010— Grant Beck, owner and Chairman of 3 Sigma Corporation, will assume the role of C.E.O. for the company, taking over for Thomas Trayner. Mr. Beck has owned the company since 1997 and has led the Board of Directors and the organization through significant expansion over those 13 years. In addition to 3 Sigma, Mr. Beck owns or has owned numerous companies in the printing industry including Baseline Inc., Converttech Inc., Ryno Rollers and Heath Custom Press.

Mr. Trayner was initially brought into 3 Sigma as a consultant in late 2008 to implement certain key initiatives established by the Board and having fulfilled his assignment, Mr. Trayner has now moved on to pursue additional opportunities outside the company. 3 Sigma wishes him well in his new endeavors.

The company has also appointed Tony Rowley as Vice President of Operations reporting to Mr. Beck. He will be responsible for the Research & Development, Manufacturing and Administrative functions of 3 Sigma. Mr. Rowley has been with 3 Sigma for 5 years and has implemented numerous changes in the organization relating to process and technology growth. He has a long background in the industry that includes technical and management positions at Spinnaker and Ashland Chemical.

The Management and associates of 3 Sigma welcome these gentlemen to their new responsibilities and wish them well in their expanded roles.

Since 1980, 3 Sigma has been a fast-growing, resourceful innovator of specialty top-coating and pressure sensitive adhesive coated products. 3 Sigma offers expertise in solvent, emulsion, and hot melt technologies, to provide the optimum solution for any label need. Quality teams monitor and inspect material throughout the manufacturing process according to ISO 9001:2008 guidelines, to ensure that 3 Sigma customers receive the best label stock available.
